

Page 26

Five Forks, visitor contact station
Petersburg National Battlefield

About one-half mile southeast of the intersection of Routes 613, 627 and 645

The new Five Forks visitor contact station is now open on Courthouse Road about a half mile southeast of the actual Five Forks intersection on Courthouse Road. Petersburg National Battlefield Park fees apply.

Pages 68-71

Change follows "Mile 92.9 Appomattox River"

Note: From this point, "Mile" notations in the text no longer apply.

High Bridge

3 miles east of the intersection of Route 45 and River Road at the intersection with the High Bridge Trail

- ▼ Cross the Appomattox River north of downtown Farmville, take an immediate right on River Road, then 3 miles to the intersection with the High Bridge Trail and the Civil War Trails stop. If you'd like to see the site of High Bridge, it's a walk of about a mile south on the trail.

See description, page 70.

- ▼ Retrace your steps back to Route 45.

Buffalo Lithia Springs, page 68

Cumberland Church, page 69

- ▼ After seeing Cumberland Church, continue north until you intersect with the former Lee's Retreat route at Route 636. Turn left on that road to get back on "old" route. Next stop, Raines' Tavern Site, page 71.

